

Critical Issues in Education

Dialogues and Dialectics

---

EIGHTH EDITION

Jack L. Nelson
Rutgers University

Stuart B. Palonsky
University of Missouri

Mary Rose McCarthy
Pace University

---

FOREWORD BY

Nel Noddings

Stanford University; Teachers College, Columbia University

Brief Contents

FOREWORD    xiii

PREFACE    xvi

1. Introduction: Critical Issues and Critical Thinking    1

Part One

WHOSE INTERESTS SHOULD SCHOOLS SERVE? JUSTICE AND EQUITY

---

2. Family Choice in Education: Public Interest or Private Good    49
3. Financing Schools: Equity or Privilege    69
4. Privatization, Commercialization, and the Business of School: Complementing or Competing Interests    87
5. Religion and Public Schools: Free Expression or Separation    114
6. Gender Equity: Eliminating Discrimination or Accommodating Difference    135
7. New Immigrants and the Schools: Unfair Burden or Business as Usual    154

Part Two
WHAT SHOULD BE TAUGHT?
KNOWLEDGE AND LITERACY

---

8. Standards-Based Reform: Real Change or Badly Flawed Policy	191
9. The Academic Achievement Gap: Old Remedies or New	213
10. Values/Character Education: Traditional or Liberational	236
11. Multicultural Education: Democratic or Divisive	260
12. Technology and Learning: Enabling or Subverting	279

Part Three
THE SCHOOL COMMUNITY
INDIVIDUALS AND ENVIRONMENTS

---

13. Discipline and Justice: Zero Tolerance or Discretionary Practices	315
14. Violence and Bullying in Schools: School Treatable or Beyond School Control	334
15. Inclusion and Disability: Common or Special Education	353
16. Teacher Unions and School Reform: Advocate or Adversary	381
17. Academic Freedom and Censorship: Teacher Rights or Responsibilities	397