

Foundations of Early Childhood Education

TEACHING CHILDREN IN A DIVERSE SOCIETY

Sixth Edition

Janet Gonzalez-Mena

		PERPUSTAKAAN
No. INV	127-66-17
Th. Angg.	DONATED BY C1
PARAG	TGL.

Mc
Graw
Hill

Connect
Learn
Succeed™

The Asia Foundation
BOOKS FOR ASIA
NOT FOR SALE

Brief Contents

Part 1

Foundations of the Teaching–Learning Process: The Role of the Early Childhood Educator 2

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Early Childhood Education as a Career 4 | 4 Facilitating Young Children's Work and Play 86 |
| 2 First Things First: Health and Safety Through Observation and Supervision 38 | 5 Guiding Young Children's Behavior 120 |
| 3 Communicating with Young Children 62 | 6 The Teacher as Model 148 |
| | 7 Modeling Adult Relationships in Early Childhood Settings 178 |

Part 2

Foundations in Supporting Development and Learning 210

- | | |
|--|--|
| 8 Setting Up the Physical Environment 212 | 11 Developmental Tasks as the Curriculum: How to Support Children at Each Stage 300 |
| 9 Creating a Social-Emotional Environment 248 | 12 Observing, Recording, and Assessing 328 |
| 10 Routines 272 | |

Part 3

Planning for Learning and Development by Enhancing Children's Curiosity, Joy, and Sense of Wonder 356

- | | |
|--|---|
| 13 Enhancing Children's Learning and Development Through Language and Emergent Literacy 358 | 15 Integrating Art, Music, and Social Studies into a Holistic Curriculum 414 |
| 14 Fostering Joy in Developmentally Appropriate Experiences in Math and Science 388 | |