

POWER,

POWERLESSNESS

AND

ADDICTION  N

JIM ORFORD

CAMBRIDGE

Contents

|                                                                        |                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| Preface                                                         | page ix |
| Acknowledgements                                                | xv             |
| 1 Powerful connections: three examples of addiction                    | 1              |
| 2 How addiction erodes free agency                                     | 35             |
| 3 Addiction subordinates the interests of family members and friends   | 69             |
| 4 Inequality in the power to resist addiction                          | 98             |
| 5 Power and powerlessness in the addiction supply industries           | 131            |
| 6 Reasserting control and power in the process of change and treatment | 170            |
| 7 Facing up to the power of addiction and those who benefit from it    | 193            |
| References                                                      | 233            |
| Index                                                           | 252            |