

The AMERICAN SCHOOL

A GLOBAL CONTEXT
FROM THE PURITANS
TO THE OBAMA ERA

EIGHTH EDITION

JOEL SPRING

McGraw-Hill Education
DONATION ONLY

CONTENTS

List of Time Lines x

Preface xi

1 Thinking Critically about History 1

Interpreting School History: From the Right to the Left 1

Purposes of Educational History and Its Effect on Public Images and Emotions
Regarding Schools 2

Themes in American Educational History 4

Globalization Framework 4

The Effect of Cultural and Religious Differences on Schools 5

Schools as Managers of Public Thought 6

Racial and Ethnic Conflict as a Theme in School History 7

The Role in Educational History of Equality of Opportunity and Human Capital 8

Consumer and Environmental Education 9

2 Globalization and Religion in Colonial Education 11

Education and Culture in Colonial Society 12

The Role of Education in Colonial Society 13

Historical Interpretations of Colonial Education 15

Authority and Social Status in Colonial Education 16

Colonialism and Educational Policy 21

Language and Cultural Conflict 23

Native Americans: Education as Cultural Imperialism 24

Enslaved Africans: Atlantic Creoles 28

Enslaved Africans: The Plantation System 29

The Idea of Secular Education: Freedom of Thought and the Establishment of Academies 31

Benjamin Franklin and Education as Social Mobility	35
The Family and the Child	38
Conclusion	43
3 Nationalism, Multiculturalism, and Moral Reform in the New Republic	47
World Culture Theorists	48
The Problem of Cultural Diversity	49
Noah Webster: Nationalism and the Creation of a Dominant Culture	51
Thomas Jefferson: A Natural Aristocracy	55
Moral Reform and Faculty Psychology	58
Concepts of Childhood: Protected, Working, Poor, Rural, and Enslaved	60
Charity Schools, the Lancasterian System, and Prisons	61
Institutional Change and the American College	67
Public versus Private Schools	72
Conclusion: Continuing Issues in American Education	74
4 The Ideology and Politics of the Common School	79
Three Distinctive Features of the Common School Movement	80
Workingmen and the Struggle for a Republican Education	89
How Much Government Involvement in Schools? The Whigs and the Democrats	92
The Birth of the High School	96
The Continuing Debate about the Common School Ideal	97
Conclusion	102
5 The Common School and the Threat of Cultural Pluralism	106
The Increasing Multicultural Population of the United States	107
Irish Catholics: A Threat to Anglo-American Schools and Culture	110
Slavery and Freedom in the North: African Americans and Schools in the New Republic	115
Native Americans	122
Conclusion	136

6 Organizing the American School: Teachers and Bureaucracy 141

The American Teacher	141
Revolution in Teaching Methods: Object Learning	147
The Evolution of Bureaucracy: A Global Model	151
The Age-Graded Classroom	152
McGuffey's Readers and the Spirit of Capitalism	154
Conclusion	160

7 Multiculturalism and the Failure of the Common School Ideal 162

Mexican Americans: Race and Citizenship	163
Asian Americans: Exclusion and Segregation	169
Native American Citizenship	176
Educational Racism and Deculturalization	177
Citizenship for African Americans	183
Issues Regarding Puerto Rican Citizenship	190
Conclusion: Setting the Stage for the Great Civil Rights Movement	196

8 Global Migration and the Growth of the Welfare Function of Schools 200

Immigration from Southern and Eastern Europe	201
The Kindergarten Movement	204
Home Economics: Education of the New Consumer Woman	205
School Cafeterias, The American Cuisine, and Processed Foods	208
The Play Movement	213
Summer School	214
Social Centers	215
The New Culture Wars	217
Resisting Segregation: African Americans	219
Resisting Segregation: Mexican Americans	222
Native American Boarding Schools	226
Resisting Discrimination: Asian Americans	227

Educational Resistance in Puerto Rico	229
Conclusion: Public Schooling as America's Welfare Institution	231
9 Human Capital: High School, Junior High School, and Vocational Guidance and Education	236
The High School	236
Vocational Education	244
Junior High School	249
Adapting the Classroom to the Workplace: Lesson Plans	250
Adapting the Classroom to the Workplace: Progressivism	252
Adapting the Classroom to the Workplace: Stimulus-Response	256
Classroom Management as Preparation for Factory Life	259
Historical Interpretations: Public Benefit or Corporate Greed?	260
Conclusion: The Meaning of Equality of Opportunity	266
10 Scientific School Management: Testing, Immigrants, and Experts	270
Scientifically Managed Schools: Meritocracy and Reducing Public Control	271
Professionalizing Educational Administration	274
Measurement, Democracy, and the Superiority of Anglo-Americans	278
Closing the Door to Immigrants: The 1924 Immigration Act	284
"Backward" Children and Special Classrooms	285
Eugenics and the Age of Sterilization	286
The University and Meritocracy	287
Conclusion	295
11 The Politics of Knowledge: Teachers' Unions, the American Legion, and the American Way	299
Teachers versus Administrators: The American Federation of Teachers	300
The Rise of the National Education Association	304
The Political Changes of the Depression Years	307
The Politics of Ideological Management: The American Legion	314
Selling the "American Way" in Schools and on Billboards	316
Conclusion	324

12	Schools, Media, and Popular Culture: Influencing the Minds of Children and Teenagers	327
	Censorship of Movies as a Form of Public Education	327
	Educators and the Movies	330
	The Production Code: Movies as Educators	335
	Should Commercial Radio or Educators Determine National Culture?	337
	Creating the Superhero for Children's Radio	341
	Controlling the Influence of Comic Books	346
	Educating Children as Consumers	348
	The Creation of Teenage Markets	350
	Children and Youth from the 1950s to the Twenty-First Century	352
	Conclusion	353
13	American Schools and Global Politics: The Cold War and Poverty	358
	Youth Unemployment: Universal Military Service and the GI Bill	359
	The Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and the Educational Testing Service	363
	The Cold War and Purging the Schools of Communists	364
	American Schools: Weakest Link to Global Victory?	366
	Global Imperatives: The National Defense Education Act	369
	Schools and the War on Poverty	371
	Sesame Street and Educational Television	376
	Conclusion	383
14	The Fruits of Globalization: Civil Rights, Global Migration, and Multicultural Education	386
	Ending School Segregation of National Minorities	387
	The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.	390
	Native Americans and Indigenous Educational Rights	392
	Asian Americans: Educating the "Model Minority"	396
	Hispanic/Latino Americans	400
	Bilingual Education: The Culture Wars Continued	402
	The Immigration Act of 1965 and the New American Population	406
	Multicultural Education and the Culture Wars	407

Schools and the International Women's Movement	411
Children with Special Needs	413
The Coloring of Textbook Town	414
Liberating the Textbook Town Housewife for More Consumption	419
Conclusion: The Cold War and Civil Rights	420
15 Globalizing the American School: From Nixon to Obama	425
School Prayer and Bible Reading	427
The Nixon Years: Career Education and Busing	429
Accountability and Standardized Testing	432
Global Educational Goals: National Standards, Choice, and Savage Inequalities	433
The End of the Common School: Choice, Privatization, and Charter Schools	436
Educating for the Consumer Economy	437
Education for Global Work and Consumption	444
The 2008 Election: Global Economy and Cultural Divide	448
Global Crisis and the Demise of Environmental Education	451
Conclusion: From Horace Mann to Barack Obama	454
Index	I-1