

The Handbook of Psychodrama

Edited by Marcia Karp, Paul Holmes and Kate
Bradshaw Tauvon

Preface by Zerka T. Moreno

Illustrated by Ken Sprague with original drawings from psychodrama sessions

London and New York

Contents

List of contributors vi

Preface x

ZERKA T. MORENO

Introduction to the Handbook xvi

MARCIA KARP

PART I	The warm-up—what is psychodrama?	1
1	An introduction to psychodrama MARCIA KARP	3
2	The historical background of psychodrama PETER HAWORTH	15
3	Principles of psychodrama KATE BRADSHAW TAUON	31
4	The warm-up SUSIE TAYLOR	51
PART II	The action—how is psychodrama done?	73
5	The stage: the theatre of psychodrama JOHN CASSON	75
6	The protagonist KATE BRADSHAW TAUON	97
7	The group ANNE BANNISTER	117
8	The auxiliary ego PAUL HOLMES	137
9	The director: cognition in action MARCIA KARP	155
10	The sharing	177

GILLIE RUSCOMBE-KING

- | | | |
|----|------------------------------------|-----|
| 11 | The processing
JINNIE JEFFERIES | 197 |
|----|------------------------------------|-----|

PART III	The application—how is psychodrama used?	211
----------	--	-----

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 12 | The three-layered cake, butter with everything
OLIVIA LOUSADA | 213 |
| 13 | The psychodramatic treatment of depression
CHRIS FARMER | 237 |
| 14 | Permission to interact: a who, how and why of sociodrama
KEN SPRAGUE | 253 |
| 15 | The relationship between psychodrama and dramatherapy
DOROTHY LANGLEY | 269 |
| 16 | Psychodrama and group-analytic psychotherapy
KATE BRADSHAW TAUVON | 283 |

Epilogue	303
-----------------	-----

ANNE ANCELIN SCHÜTZENBERGER
-----------------------------	--

Index	307
--------------	-----